

The King and Queen of England at the grave of Miss Cavell, in Belgium, where their Majesties placed a wreath as their tribute to the English nurse. An incident of their Majesties' visit to the King and Queen of Belgium. Pacific and Atlantic.

A new photograph of the Baroness Rosenkrantz of Denmark, who has done valiant work for the Salvation Army and children's welfare. Underwood & Underwood.

Just triplets. Warren, Woodrow and William Taft Wade, photographed at dinner in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wade of Texas. The boys were named for one present and two past Presidents. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Juliet Griffith Mosher, who was an obscure but ambitious singer when she was heard by Mme. Calve. The diva immediately made Mrs. Mosher her protegee and has taken her abroad for study under her direction. Mrs. Mosher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Griffith of Park avenue and the widow of Dr. Burr Burton Mosher of Brooklyn. Wide World.

Mlle. Lysette Chambray, who represented Jean d'Arc at this year's Jean d'Arc celebration in Paris. She led the pageant depicting the life of France's heroine. Kadel & Herbert.

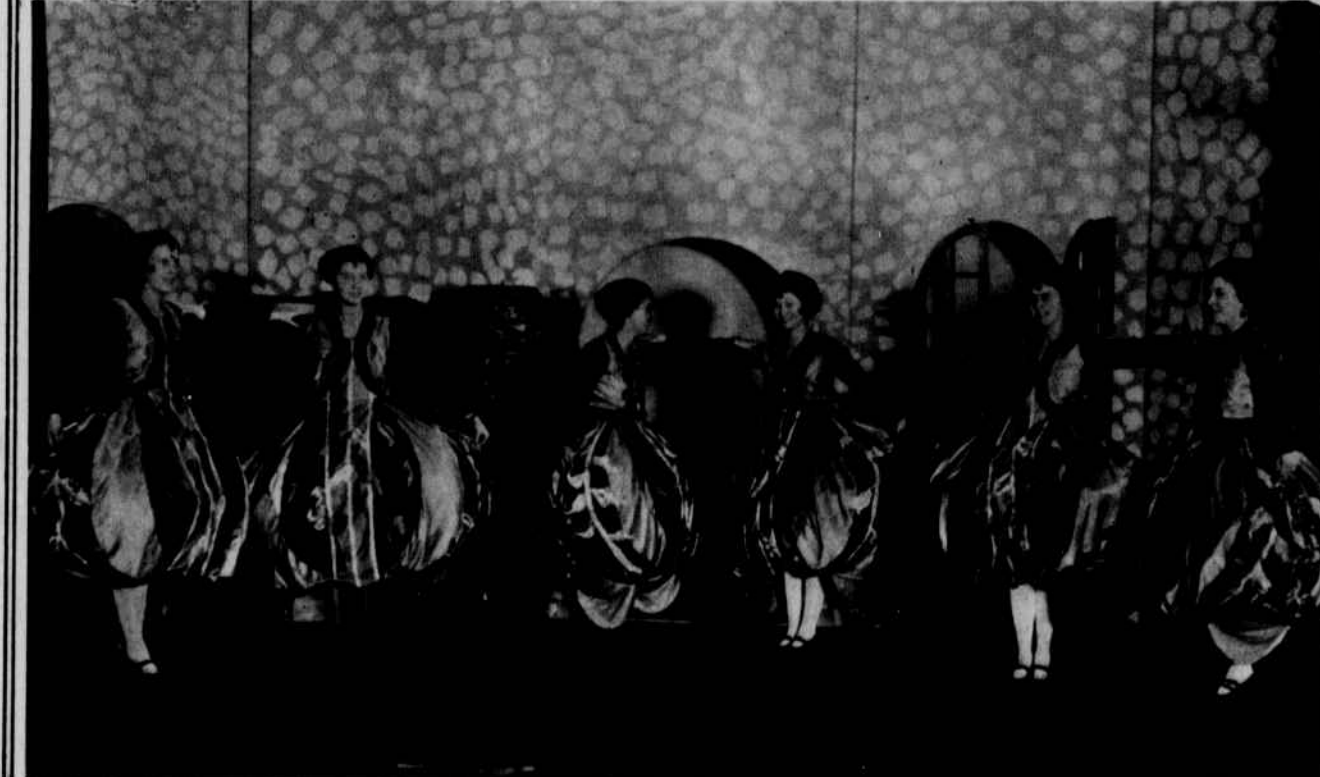

Above: Champion archers at Wellesley College. Left to right: Miss Mary MacFarlane, Miss Elizabeth Paschal, Miss Jean Wilder, Miss Adelaide Boggess and Miss Cynthia Lamb. International.

The German Zeppelin, renamed "Le Mediterranee," which Germany has turned over to France and which has arrived at its hangar at St. Cyr. An idea of the size of the Zeppelin may be gained from the photo of its passenger cabin. Underwood & Underwood.

At right: The new home of the National Collection of Heads and Horns just erected in the Zoological Park. The value of the building and its contents exceeds $500,000. It was opened to the public last Friday. New York Herald Photo.

Futurist chorus in "The Poppy Trail," staged by students of Connecticut College. Left to right: Grace Balsley of Middletown, Conn.; Helen Hewitt of Troy, N. Y.; Helen Peale of Norwich, Conn.; Ellen McCandless of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Dorothy Hubbard of Beverly, Mass., and Harriet Bynon of Middletown, Conn.